

WESTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY

For Western Michigan University employees, their dependents and WMU retirees covered by the University’s insurance plan, using Sindecuse Health Center yields significant savings and benefits.

Pharmacy

Receive Rx medications at a discounted out-of-pocket cost:

30-day supply copay	Sindecuse pharmacy	competing pharmacies
first tier	$10	$15
second tier	$30	$35
third tier	$40	$60

Receive a 90-day Rx medication supply for 1.25X copay at a significant savings over other pharmacies. Ask your doctor to write an order for a 90-day supply:

90-day supply copay	Sindecuse pharmacy	competing pharmacies
first tier	$12.50	$37.50
second tier	$37.50	$87.50
third tier	$50.00	$150.00

- Refill online or by phone and pick up at our drive-up window
- Low-cost over-the-counter medications also available
- Use Express Pay to deduct charges from your WMU paycheck

Clinic

Choose an appointment time convenient for you

- Schedule a same-day appointment as available
- No copay when you see a provider or clinician at Sindecuse
- No out-of-pocket-cost immunizations
- Seasonal influenza vaccination clinics

WMU Sports Medicine Clinic

for physical therapy and rehabilitation

- No copay when you see a physical therapist or orthopedic specialist
- Convenient on-campus, access to quick appointments
- Shorter wait times compared to community
- Same providers who treat WMU athletes and practice at community clinics
- Orthotics and gait evaluation

Lab and X-ray

- Early appointments available
- No out-of-pocket-cost testing when you use lab services
- No copay when you need an X-ray
- Fast results

International Travel Clinic

- No copay
- One of a few yellow fever vaccine sites in Kalamazoo
- Prescribed medications available at Health Center pharmacy

Massage therapy

- Convenient, on-campus appointments
- Visits covered by University insurance plan after deductible is met and with a physician’s order

Nutrition counseling

- No copay